NNESRE– Our 108th Annual Session

We are an interfaith, interracial, family-oriented, and open community that shares a weeklong experience of living and learning. Each year we explore a new camp theme that is woven into our various educational courses, activities, worship, and music. There are program opportunities for spiritual development, socio-political awareness, artistic expression, personal growth, and renewal. The camp philosophy directs us to bring newly acquired insight and knowledge back to our homes, places of worship and communities in a collective effort to make our world a better place.

Geneva Point Center is located on the shores of Lake Winnepesaukee in central New Hampshire and features 195 acres of beautiful beaches, woodland trails, and recreational facilities. Each day begins with optional activities such as a morning walk/run/swim or a community led Morning Watch service followed by breakfast and then classes for all ages. Afternoons are open for rest, relaxation, and recreational pursuits. The waterfront offers swimming, paddleboats, canoes and kayaks. Following dinner and our Evening Watch service there are programs designed to provide fun for all ages, including folk dancing, storytelling, the "Hoot" talent show, a Coffee House, campfire singing, a drum ring, and much, much more.

Please join us this year to experience "Winni," a loving and supportive community and tradition.

NNESRE Mission Statement: The Northern New England School of Religious Education (NNESRE) is an inclusive, intergenerational community welcoming all people. NNESRE conducts an annual session offering courses and activities that provide opportunities for spiritual development, socio-political awareness, artistic expression, personal growth and renewal.

LIVE WINNI

ROOTED IN LOVE

AUGUST 3 - 10, 2024

“ROOTED IN LOVE”

The smell of the pines... the sound of water lapping against the shore... the feel of the sun on your shoulders... What would Geneva Point Center be without its glorious natural backdrop? I know we can all agree on the importance of protecting and preserving Mother Earth. It's never more apparent than while enjoying our week at Camp Winni!

It certainly will take stewardship to pass this physical world on to our future generations - stewardship from a place of love. This year, we chose “Rooted in Love” as our theme for our week. Imagine what a wonderful place the world would be if everything we do comes from a place of love! Improvements to our world on all fronts - physically, emotionally, and spiritually. From the world at large, to our home communities, and our own Winni community - let's take our theme, “Rooted in Love,” from our week together and make a better world. We hope to see you this summer!

A Note from the Business manager:

Recent Changes to be aware of:

- 2024 Rates. GPC has implemented a price increase of approximately 6%. In part, the rise is intended to help catch up with inflation of such things as food, building materials, and seasonal staffing. GPC rates (especially per person rates) cover much more than just food and lodging. You are also paying for where you are and its amenities, including beautiful vistas, beaches, boats, lifeguards, trails, green spaces, playgrounds, gardens, and our expanding collection of onsite recreational opportunities. It is also to help keep pace with maintenance and improvement needs across GPC's campus. In 2023 alone, GPC spent more than $100,000 on buildings, grounds, equipment, and infrastructure.
  - Registration fees have risen to $170 for over 21 and $160 for under 21 but we also have an early discount of $10 per attendee if you register by April 15!
  - GPC has a $50 lost key charge, so please keep track of your keys!
  - Please add a 3rd choice on lodging and consider sharing cabins like Dock Road with other families to accommodate all our returning and new campers!
  - GPC has increased the lodging and meeting space by 6% but the business committee has negotiated a discount this year for meeting space!
  - GPC has increased all the meals by 6% and raised the charge for special diets to $4.25 per meal ($85 per week) for vegan and gluten free. Vegetarian will be considered standard and not have an extra charge.
  - CREDIT CARDS ARE BEING ACCEPTED FOR DEPOSITS AND FINAL PAYMENTS. Please fill out form at the end of this brochure if you would like to use a credit card. A fee of 3% will be added.
  - GPC will still be placing linens on beds versus making them unless otherwise instructed. This keeps the turnaround process much quicker. As a result, they are providing linen sets for rooms (that come with them) but guests will be making their own beds. Anyone, for whom this may be a difficulty, can request to have their beds made up for them by GPC.
  - FYI GPC is implementing a new rate structure next year. The new price structure will combine prices for meals, lodging and amenities for all your participants. However, it will be set up in a simplified, multi-tiered, family sensitive schedule that GPC believes will be easier for you.

Adult Education Classes

Three periods of 55-minute classes beginning at 9:00 a.m. each day, Sunday thru Friday

Winni 2024 – Rooted In Love Adult Education Program

Welcome to Winni 2024 Adult Education. NNSRE offers weeklong classes in three categories: Social/Political, Personal Development, and Religion and Spirituality. Read on for class descriptions and instructor bios. We've got a great lineup featuring some familiar faces and new instructors. Looking forward to seeing you in class!

Please note that class offerings are subject to change.

Social/Political

Black American History: What are we scared of? Piper Kendrix Williams

This course will focus on excerpts from the tradition of Black American Literature from slavery to the 21st century. It will build our knowledge and confidence as readers of Black American literature, history, culture and society in the United States.

This course will provide much needed education in Black American Literature and History, which has been the focus of recent efforts by banning books and the teaching of Black history. So many places seem to want to ban anything that even has a Black character or that focuses on the contributions, experiences and reality of Black Americans, who have been central to this nation and its success. This course will provide an antidote for the fear mongering of banning what we can read and learn about.

You will be exposed to many works written by Black Americans and you will have the opportunity to take these excerpts or the full texts back to where you live: to your school district, to your church, to your book clubs, family and circle of friends. Knowledge and Education are the tools of freedom. This class will educate you and add to your knowledge, so we all can be free.

The breakdown of the week is as follows:

Day 1: Enslaved Peoples narratives

Day 2: Reconstruction

Day 3: Harlem Renaissance/Black arts Poetry

Day 4: Realism: 1940-60

Day 5: Black Women Writers: 1970-2000

Day 6: 21st century

Piper Kendrix Williams, PhD is the Chair and Professor of African American Studies and jointly appointed in English at The College of New Jersey (TCNJ). She is the co-editor of Re-presenting Segregation: Toward an Aesthetics of Living Jim Crow (SUNY UP, 2012). She is the co-author of The Toni Morrison Book Club published by the University of Wisconsin Press (2020). Her essay "Afrofuturistic Storytelling in Barracoon and Their Eyes Were Watching God" appears in Routledge Handbook to Alternative Futurism. (October 2023). She is editor of the forthcoming Teaching Toni Morrison in the 21st Century (Modern Language Association).

Growing A Better Planet: Gardening for A Healthier Food System, Planet, Mind and Body

Lisa Garcia

This class grew out of discussions and many questions that came up during the "Food as a Social Justice Issue" class I facilitated in 2023.

The aim of this class is to:

- Explore the many different ways people can grow at least a portion of their own food in gardens, on balconies, and even indoors. Group discussions will include techniques for growing in small spaces including balconies, as we age, on limited budgets, and when we have limited time.
- Have participants share techniques, ideas, sources for plants and seeds, and resources individuals and community groups can use to learn from and revitalize our depleted soils, protect and strengthen our challenged ecosystem, provide healthy nutritious food for more people in our communities, and address the multiple physical and mental health challenges we face as individuals and society.
- Introduce some of the science that is changing how we garden and why more health systems around the world are adding gardening to their list of recommended therapies to address common medical and mental health issues.

This group discussion class is designed to inspire and engage people of all ages who have never grown food before, experienced gardeners, and even retired gardeners.

Lisa Garcia, registered dietitian nutritionist, combines her lifelong passion for gardening and food with extensive education and experience to help people conquer weight and gut health issues. She also frequently explores the ever-changing worlds of science, nutrition, and food policy and their implications on our health and that of our planet.

Lisa has been growing food for more decades than she cares to admit and holds a master's degree in nutrition science from the University of St Joseph. She is a member of numerous professional groups. Her practice, Food Coach LLC, reaches people in many states through telehealth and in-person sessions.

The Female Body: An Unexplored Landscape

Monica Seligmann

The foundation of all human roots lies in the pelvic bowl of the female body, the womb. The womb and its impact on the female anatomy is one of the most unknown topics still today, yet it is one of the most important topics for girls and women to be knowledgeable of, for it dictates a huge aspect of their day to day lives throughout their lifespan, whether or not they want to be aware of it.

Today women have trouble conceiving, there's birth control that omits menstrual cycles, the leading cause of death in postpartum is suicide, pelvic floor dysfunction isn't considered a universally covered health problem, there's a gender gap in academia, and mental health disorders increase or have an onset around the menarcheal, perinatal and menopausal stages of life. Prehistoric icons of God were Goddesses represented as pregnant women. Where did this celebration of female sexuality go? Why is it hidden in the shadows?

There is a disconnect occurring between women and what makes them a woman. This disconnect has many explanations. What is most important, though, is to talk about it, because keeping things in the shadows is what's creating problems in the first place. And that's what this class will provide.

We will be discussing taboo topics of feminine sexuality, femininity, the menarcheal stage, the perinatal stage, and the menopausal stage. Part of the class will be in a council ring-like structure. This is to build the sense of community, connection, and to restore the sisterhood that our Mother Earth so desperately needs. We are to have honest discussions that aren't happening within families and friends which has detrimental effects in our society.

This class is not just for women, but fathers of girls, husbands of wives, sons of mothers, boyfriends of girlfriends, & brothers of sisters. It's for the Martians who are curious of Venetians' experience, and to share their perspective. In contrast to popular beliefs like "the future is female," we need our men and the future is both male and female working together harmoniously. Open communication is where that starts.

Please note this class will run for 2 consecutive periods. Participants are encouraged to commit to attending for the entire week to support the community building that will be happening in the class.

Monica Seligmann is a prenatal yoga teacher, perinatal massage therapist, doula, and mother. Her work in massage and yoga took a change of direction after having her daughter, Eva, in 2019. She founded her prenatal massage and yoga studio in 2021 and since then has intimately worked with over 300 women in their journey from Maiden to Mother, listening and observing along the way. She has a passion for mind-body connection, anatomy, physiology, Ayurveda, embodiment, feminine embodiment, polarity and somatic therapies and will continue her studies in those fields. Thanks to her years of living abroad and studying in Latin America, she has incorporated into her own life the cultural values of its indigenous - the inseparable connection we have to the earth and its effect on our body mind and spirit. She lives in Delaware with her daughter and extended family and has been attending Winni since she was one year old. She's a "lifer".

Religion and Spirituality

Authoring Your Own Life: Exploring Buddha's Brain and Ancient Toltec Wisdom

Kathy Pike

This class will have a hands-on, full-self approach as we explore different ways we take in and send out contemplative messages (music, chanting, sound bowls, spoken word, vision boards, etc.).

We'll explore the convergence of ancient wisdom and modern science to illuminate the path towards profound inner transformation. The teachings of Buddha are intertwined with the latest findings in neuroscience, offering a profound understanding of the mind's capacity for happiness and spiritual growth.

We'll also look at readings rooted in Toltec wisdom (a pre-Columbian Mesoamerican belief system.) All of us, from various religious backgrounds (or not/none) may find parallels with our own faith's teachings (even if that faith is your own higher self). The work can be adapted to complement and enhance one's spiritual journey.

Kathy Pike is a hospice social worker and about to complete a 200-hour yoga teacher training program. She is a long-time practitioner of yoga, meditation, and mindfulness and mom to two great kids and long-time Winni campers.

That's Why I Love Mankind

Adam Brosious

I'd like to have a conversation with you about some very old stories. In fact, some are even older than you might realize. Some so old you might question how they survived to current day or why someone felt the need to copy them in a every language imaginable.

During our week together we will discuss the historical roots for the stories of Genesis and Exodus using non-biblical sources including works by Professor Manfred Bietak, Dr. David Neiman and Professor Irving Finkel. We will discuss how they represent a new relationship between God and man then discuss if their significance remains in our modern life or if they have evolved a new meaning for us.

Adam Michael Brosious is a Family Nurse Practitioner from Central Ohio. He holds a Bachelor of Science in Nursing from The Ohio State University, a Master of Science in Nursing from Chamberlain University of Illinois, and a Doctor of Nursing Practice, also from Chamberlain University of Illinois.

He has over 14 years of experience in Emergency Medicine. Recently, he has had the opportunity to contribute to healthcare research and implementation with a non-for-profit organization. His dedication to healthcare comes from a genuine desire to make a positive impact on the lives of others.

Outside of healthcare, Adam enjoys various interests, including baking, music, painting, and archeology. These hobbies provide him with a creative outlet and a broader perspective on life.

Adam's professional mission is to work towards improving the accessibility and quality of healthcare for individuals from all walks of life. He finds profound fulfillment in the privilege of helping others and is driven by a heartfelt commitment to create a healthier and happier world for everyone.

The Holy Bible, "The Greatest Story Ever Told"

Mark Brady

The Judeo/Christian Bible IS the greatest story ever told.

Come discover a new way to read the stories and a whole new way of using them to improve your life and the lives of your family and your friends and acquaintances. We'll read a story, dissect it, and put ourselves in the sandals of its characters. Everyone can contribute. We'll look for heroes, heroines, victims, innocent bystanders, and ourselves in the dramas. We'll look for the nature of God, the nature of humans with each other and with God. Come share what you see in the mirror of the stories.

Mark Brady is a Congregational church Pastor at the North Canaan Congregational Church in East Canaan, CT. He also has had a kitchen and bath design and remodeling firm in Granby, CT for 58 years and is a master carpenter, storyteller and living history actor and re-enactor.

Personal Development

Carving and Conversation II

Tom Weston

Wooden spoons are perhaps one of our earliest tools. They are useful for cooking and serving food and for feeding ourselves. They can also be beautiful pieces of art as well as functional utensils.

Eleven years ago, I carved my first spoon here at Geneva Point Center. If you would like to learn how to carve a wooden spoon, I will help you design, carve, shape, smooth and finish your spoon. We will start with some basic safety instructions, and then move on to carving.

While wood carving is an activity that requires your complete attention, it still allows for conversation. Our theme, "Rooted In Love" should provide ample fodder for exploring ways we express our love in the things we think, say and do as we enjoy conversation with one another while going about our carving project.

If you have some project wood you like, spoon carving tools, cut resistant and/or leather gloves, please bring them. I will bring what tools and gloves I have, and we can all share them. I will also provide some NH hardwood for carving.

So come spend an hour with me and carve yourself a hardwood spoon as we continue to enjoy the fellowship of "Carving and Conversation II".

Tom Weston - I have lived in NH since graduation from New England College in 1973. I fell in love with NH as a result of being a camper here at GPC since 1953. I am a retired insurance professional and insurance regulator, serving 21+ years with the NH State Insurance Department. In retirement, I enjoy singing with Concord Chorale, hiking with the Concord Mountain Goats, photography, beekeeping, gardening, fishing and cross-country skiing. I am a juried member of the League of New Hampshire Craftsmen since 2015. Crafting one of a kind NH hardwood spoons that are both functional and make an artist statement has become my passion.

Dance it Out

Marianna Campbell

This class will focus on various dance styles with an emphasis on learning the fundamentals of each and applying them through repetition, improvisation, and choreographed combinations. This class will revisit some hip-hop styles taught last year as well as touch on other styles just outside of the hip hop realm. Each class will start with a warmup consisting of stretches and light cardio. This will be a safe space to let go of day-to-day troubles and enjoy the delight of movement and dance.

Mariana Campbell developed a passion for dance at a young age. She studied modern dance throughout high school at the Educational Center for the Arts in CT and has been a part of hip hop dance companies and teams throughout college. Mariana has taken various dance classes including ballet, house, litedance, dancehall, salsa, contemporary, locking, popping, waacking, capoeira, body percussion, and street jazz. She is currently part of a competitive hip hop dance team based in Philadelphia as well as a performance/training-based dance company in CT. Mariana loves the community that dance can create and can't wait to dance it out with everyone.

ROOTED IN LOVE

AUGUST 3 - 10, 2024

Winni Education School 2024

Ed School is an engaging morning program for children and teens that meet Sunday through Friday of the Winni week. Winni's youth enjoy fun and fellowship while adults have the opportunity to attend their own classes. Ed School seeks to provide the young people in the Winni community with similar opportunities for meaningful community-building and personal growth to those that adults enjoy during their own morning classes.

The typical Ed School day begins after breakfast with a family singalong in the Outdoor Chapel. Teachers collect their students from the singalong and each age group travels to their respective classrooms together. During class, teachers lead a range of team-building activities, crafts, games, and projects. School-age groups also engage in an age-appropriate exploration of the Winni theme. At the end of second period, school-age campers are escorted to the waterfront for supervised swimming and beach fun during third period. Preschool students are invited to spend third period at the Siftar Cottage playground with supervision by a chaperone. Parents pick their children up after third period, before lunch. High school-age campers are encouraged to attend the adult morning classes in addition to their own high school-specific meet-up in the afternoon.

Please don't hesitate to get in touch with Ed School Coordinators, Ben and Michele Bates if you have any questions. Interested in teaching Ed School? Be on the lookout for the Interest Survey coming soon! We look forward to a wonderful Winni week together!

How Fees Are Determined

All lodging fees are based on a complete occupancy theory; meaning, the more filled beds you have in your room, the lower your costs per person will be. So, if you stay at Lakeview Lodge then your fee for the week is $1479, regardless of whether you are a single or you fill it up with four happy campers.

Conference fees cover faculty/staff subsidies, program expenses and meeting space. Our conference fees for 2024 will be: $170 for those age 21 and over and $160 for those under age 21. If you register by April 15 you will receive a discount of $10 per person!

Scholarships

Scholarship assistance is available upon request (please email business manager for an application). These funds are designed to offset some of the costs for those who may otherwise choose not to attend Winni. All scholarship requests must be in writing and sent in with the registration to the Business Manager and will be reviewed and authorized by the Scholarship Committee. Notice of scholarship grant will be provided with final invoice and scholarships will only be given to lodging under $1120 a week to prevent “upgrading”. If you are granted a scholarship and would like to “give back” by providing volunteer assistance during the week, please contact the Deans (Carrie and Travis Leap) about your willingness to do so.
